

TRANSFORMATION:

Conversations and Storytelling About Healing and Social Action

LOVE

A STORYTELLING EVENT

"Love" is the second event in our 2020-2021 "Transformation" storytelling series. The series features community organizers, advocates, healers, survivors, theorists, and artists. Each event in the Transformation series is intended to speak to our collective desire for deep social change, and to support us in finding the energy, strength, connection, and knowledge that we need in order to repair our world, and to heal ourselves and our communities.

Stories by Michal David, Kelli Dillon, Denise Marshall, Christa Sacco and Christine Stark

Hosted by Shawna Charles

Saturday, September 12, 2:30pm PST/ 5:30pm EST

This is a virtual event, and is open to the public. Register and get details at:
<https://love-stories.eventbrite.com>

"Love" is sponsored by Repair and co-sponsored by the Mizrahi Collective, the Positive Results Center & the Children's Defense Fund -- California
Media inquiries and questions related to disability access should be directed to: repair.inquiries@gmail.com

The Transformation storytelling series is also co-sponsored by Bayan Claremont Islamic Graduate School, Nefesh, The Puerto Rican Alliance, Puerto Ricans in Action, the Ti'at Society, the UCLA American Indian Studies Center, the Critical Race Studies Program at UCLA School of Law, and the Yetunde Price Resource Center

repair

<http://repairconnect.org>

<http://facebook.com/repairforjustice>

repair.inquiries@gmail.com